EF NIGHT CUPS hosted by o.clan will now be running NIGHT CUPS for all weapons and disintegration in the upcoming weeks to bring some activity back within EF. The cup will be a fast cup which is open for any team or player to take part in. We are open to any NON european candidates too that would like to take part in our competitions. The head admins for this cup will Jaz and Colin. We will look at introducing some others to help maintain the competitions and so on. You will need MIRC to take part in this cup as this allows players to easily communicate with each other and also recieve information regarding the cup quicker than any other format such as MSN. Therefore please download mIRC from www.mirc.com and join the cup channel which is #o.clan on QUAKENET. We have currently just finished season one and signups are now open for the season 2 all weapons CTF 4v4 night cup which will take place next weekend on the 29th of August at 20:00cet/19:00GMT
